

NINETEEN REVOLUTIONARY SOLDIERS
OF ATLANTIC COUNTY AND THEIR
BURIAL SITES

Thomas, Adrial and Parker Clark

These three soldiers are buried in the Clark Burying Ground at the site of the Clark's Mills Meeting House at Clark's Mills, Port Republic, Atlantic County, NJ. DAR has no proof that David and Reuben are buried here also, as there were no grave markers, but noted that Hall's History of Atlantic County states that there are five Revolutionary Soldiers of this family who are buried here. So the compilers of this book felt as though they were surely there also

Captain Micajah Smith

His grave is in the Church yard of the Meeting House he had built in what is now Port Republic, Atlantic County, NJ (Smith's Meeting House). Name later changed to the Old Union Cemetery.
